Acculite 85

This 40 inch iron shaft has a cut weight 20 grams lighter than most lightweight steel shafts providing additional feel, trajectory and distance golfers seek from a graphite offering, yet the stability that steel is renowned for.

Hump Shaft

The HUMP features an enhanced tip section which offers tip stability on all shots for improved distance and accuracy.

Balistik

Trim up to four distinct flexes with one shaft, allowing the ultimate in customization! Low-mid kickpoint.

Shadow Steel

The Shadow's low kickpoint produces higher trajectories for improved distance and softer landings. Features the unmistakable tight step pattern.

Spectre Lite

The Spectre Lite features a lightweight design in a longer length! A great option for building longer clubs. Mid kickpoint.
